

Fever 1793 Book Soundtrack – Summer Reading Assignment
for Incoming 7th Grade PreAP Language Arts
Due the first day of school, Thursday, August 16, 2018
Option 2

Rock on! You will be required to prepare a soundtrack for Fever 1793. Like music used in movie and musical soundtracks, the songs that you select will need to relate to significant elements in the plot.

1. You will need to pick five different songs, one pertaining to each of the following:
 - a. A particular character
 - b. The relationship between two or more characters
 - c. The prominent theme in the novel (remember a theme is a life message)
 - d. A specific conflict that the main character struggles with (either internal or external)
 - e. The setting of the novel in general or at a specific point
2. You will need to not only select five specific songs, but also write a 5-7 sentence response/explanation for each choice. Each response/explanation needs to be clearly labeled as to which of the five elements it is covering. Each response must also have at least one significant quote from your novel (with page number!) connected to at least one lyric from the song. Remember: ALL LITERARY PIECES MUST BE SCHOOL APPROPRIATE!
3. You will use PowerPoint or Google Slides to display your song choices (include the title of the songs and artists), copies of the lyrics, and written work. The google slides may be shared to your google classroom on the first day of school.
4. This assignment page will be turned in with the assignment.
5. Do not forget to fill in your reflection for the project.

Example:

Relationship Between Two Characters in *The Hunger Games

The song “We Found Love” by Rihanna describes the relationship between Katniss and Peeta in the novel The Hunger Games.

The lyrics “we found love in a hopeless place” fits Katniss and Peeta’s relationship at the ending of the novel. Both make sacrifices to keep the other one alive. We know Katniss and Peeta have a special relationship by the end of the novel when Katniss narrates, “I take his [Peeta’s] hand, holding on tightly, preparing for the cameras, and dreading the moment when I will finally have to let go (page 374).” They were not going into the Hunger Games to find a love or friendship; however, each made an imprint on the other’s life. We, also, understand that they are still in a hopeless place even once they are free of the games. They know their families will be in danger since they went against the Capitol rules. Because of the hopeless place, they know they have found someone they can count on.
